Safe Words:

- Yellow - Slow down, pause, readjust, or reevaluate but don't completely stop the scene
- Red - STOP IMMEDIATELY, remove all devices and restraints, and assess the situation accordingly
- Nonverbal safe words - Depending upon the circumstances of the scene, either a heavy/loud item (i.e. keys, pool ball, etc.) which can be dropped, a tap out, or shaking the head back and forth in an excessive "NO" motion

Definition of Consent - A completely mindful, willing, and uncoerced choice to say yes, and the ability to revoke that yes at any time without fear of repercussions[†]

_____ I understand that the things consented to may happen in succession or concurrently if both or multiple things are all consented to (i.e. bondage, intercourse, anal plug at same time)

Introduction

The purpose of this checklist is to document the adult performer's understanding of the activities below and serve as a starting point for a discussion regarding the adult scene they will participate in on the above referenced date.

All participants maintain the right to refuse any activity, re-negotiate terms, or ask for clarification at any time, with no questions asked, regardless of what is contained in this or any other document.

This checklist is not comprehensive and includes space additions at the end. It is also not an indication that every activity listed will be requested during the scene.

Definitions

Yes: You understand and are willing to participate in the activity indicated

No: You understand and are NOT willing to participate in the activity indicated

Needs Discussion: You might participate in this activity, but some clarification is required in order to make an informed decision. The level of intensity or the circumstances under which the activity occurs are two examples of negotiable points that may be defined before the scene.

If you are inexperienced or otherwise unsure about any activity on this list, please check "No" or "Needs Discussion"
